

STAGED PHOTOGRAPHS

150 points

Write a brief story, a few pages in length, describing a personally significant event. Be descriptive! Also be prepared to read it aloud in class. Sketch out a story board of what you have written, composed of 10 frames. Also bring to class a scene from your favorite movie that you think was well seen by the director. Be prepared to discuss how you think the screenplay influenced the director to make his or her visual decisions. Photograph the images you drew out in the storyboard, paying close attention to details. Turn in these 10 images and your revised written story.
